

Nederland Elementary School 2008-2009 PTA Membership Form

Welcome back to another exciting school year at Nederland Elementary!

Join Nederland PTA and become a member of an active local, state and national volunteer organization committed to all Nederland students and their families. Nederland PTA provides financial and volunteer support for a wide variety of school based activities aimed at building a strong school community, promoting student achievement, and supporting academic programs. There is no time commitment required to join PTA.

When families partner with schools, children succeed!

For more information about the benefits of individual membership, see other side or www.copta.org.
